

CGI Artist

Burrows are one of the UK's leading through-the-line Creative Marketing Communications companies, an integral part of the Y&R/Wunderman worldwide partnership and a WPP Company. With an impressive client list and a track record of success spanning more than thirty-five years, Burrows 3D animation studio – 'Burrows CGI' is currently seeking a CGI Artist to join their dynamic Essex-based team.

The successful candidate will possess exceptionally good 3D skills using discrete 3D Studio Max possess texturing abilities and extensive Photoshop skills. You should also have the ability to produce photo-realistic stills. Blue chip client experience is essential. In addition, knowledge of Rhino, Combustion, Render Drive, Brazil and Final Render, Mental Ray and video compositing skills would be advantageous.

You will also be keen to work on technical subjects, particularly automobiles, so any experience and engineering knowledge in this field will also be a distinct advantage. You will work with a great team on your own initiative, producing animation and hi-res renders for print and interactive. 'Burrows CGI' has been the subject of many magazine articles both in Europe and the US, so you know that you'll be working at the cutting edge of 3D technical animation.

The hours for the role are 9am - 5.30pm Monday to Thursday and 9 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. on a Friday, forming 37 hours per week (in addition the Company operates a flexible start time policy). This role may require overtime, sometimes at short notice to meet deadlines.

Burrows is 23 minutes by rail from Liverpool Street, situated next to Shenfield railway station. We offer competitive salaries, a generous benefits package including 26 days' annual leave, paid overtime, healthcare and free car parking. As an Investor in People Company, we are committed to the ongoing personal development of everyone in the Company.

All applicants must hold relevant status documentation to work in the UK/European Community prior to applying to us.
